

I am opposed to further deregulation regarding broadcast ownership. There should continue to be limits on the number of stations any organization can own.